

Katherine Mansfield,

THE 'UNDERWORLD' AND THE
'BLOOMS BERRIES'

FRI 4 – SAT 5 JUNE 2010
RMIT UNIVERSITY
MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

Keynote Speakers:

Emeritus Professor Vincent O'Sullivan
Victoria University, Wellington

Professor Sue Thomas
La Trobe University, Melbourne

Special Events:

Exhibition of reproduced portraits of Katherine Mansfield with a curator's talk by Dr Penelope Jackson.

Performance of Gary Abrahams' *Something
Childish But Very Natural* at La Mama Theatre, Carlton.

Spoken-word performance by Susannah Fullerton.

Papers on:

Motherhood, food, Henri Bergson, critics,
the lost child, voyaging, D. H. Lawrence,
time, Elizabeth Bowen, strangers and familiars, China, portraits, animals, Eleanor Dark,
gardens, autobiography, Virginia Woolf,
cousins, art, friendship, the highbrow
and the middlebrow, Evelyn Waugh, men, sympathy, Marjorie Barnard, servants, intimacy, narration.

For more information:

Dr Sarah Ailwood (University of Canberra)
Sarah.Ailwood@canberra.edu.au

Dr Melinda Harvey (RMIT University)
melinda.j.harvey@rmit.edu.au

or go to

[http://www.katherinemansfieldsociety.org/
rmit-melbourne-2010/](http://www.katherinemansfieldsociety.org/rmit-melbourne-2010/)

*Image of Katherine Mansfield
C. Janine Renshaw-Beauchamp.
With kind permission.*